Your ticket includes all day access to the festival grounds for activities such as livestock shows, music events, exhibits, the marketplace and the carnival. Grounds open at 9:00 am.

Our Hokie Event is in a private area of the grounds that is set up as an old western town known as The Range. Check-in begins at 10:30. The meal is cooked around the chuck wagons over an open fire and will consist of beef/chicken fajitas with all the trimmings followed by freshly made peach cobbler. Iced tea and coffee is complimentary.

We have reserved tickets for the 1:00 rodeo event in the AT&T Center. (The musical lineup following the rodeo has not yet been announced.)

To guarantee your tickets, the bottom of this form must be received by October 29. (Forms that are received after that date are competing against public sales of tickets and cannot be guaranteed). For more information or questions, please e-mail vtaasa@yahoo.com.
